

For Thoughtful People . . .

who wish to add an appropriate “personalized” touch to their giving—as an individual or as a group—the Milford Library has an answer.

A gift to the Milford Library’s collection is one of the most satisfying ways of insuring that your gift will live, will be cared for, and will continue to be used. It can reflect the taste of the giver or, in the case of memorials, of the individual in whose memory it is given. Gifts make it possible for the Milford Library to acquire significant and beautiful items while giving you the satisfaction of knowing your generosity will be a source of pleasure for all library patrons.

A gift to the library need not be necessarily an “in memoriam.” It can be—and has been—given to commemorate an occasion, a birthday, anniversary or other milestone.

Library staff will send an acknowledgement to the donor and to the person (or the family of the person) being honored. A bookplate will be inscribed with the name of the honoree and the donor and placed in the item.
